SPIC MACAY Cultural Programme – 17 July 2026

A special cultural programme was organized at Adani Vidya Mandir, Surguja, in association with SPIC MACAY on 17 July 2026 to promote Indian classical art and culture among students. Renowned Sattriya artist Ms. Usha Rani Baishya and her team presented captivating Sattriya dance performances depicting episodes from the Ramayana and the childhood stories of Lord Krishna. Students also presented a traditional dance performance. Certificates were awarded to students who excelled in the Ramgarh Mahotsav. The artists interacted with students and shared insights into Sattriya art, its cultural significance, discipline, and practice. The programme provided students with an enriching exposure to India's rich classical heritage and strengthened their connection with Indian culture.
